

Men's Weekend Intensive

Thanks for signing up for a powerful weekend!

We have a great group of men for this level-1 men's group! If you have yet to have a session with me, please sign up for a phone session before the group to help lay the foundation. We can do a brief 10-minute screening call or do a full phone session if needed and the cost of that would be an additional $166 per 45-minute phone session. You can schedule with my assistant at info@ChristianCC.org

PREP WORK BEFOREHAND: Two Different Tracks

Deceptive Sexuality Track vs. Abuse Track (you can choose both if you need both, just read more)

#1- Readings- Books

Deceptive Sexuality Track:

Read The Sexually Healthy Man and The Psychology of Porn. Be familiar with the themes. Also, read the "Sexuality Section" of the book To Be A Man by Robert Masters and bring that book with you. Also, highly recommended is Unwanted, by Jay Stringer.

Abuse Track:

Read *How Not to Be an SS by Andrew and Why Does He do That? By Lundy Bancroft. Also, read the "Anger chapter & Sexuality Section" of the book To Be A Man by Robert Masters and bring that book with you.

#2- Write your Story

Assignment #1

This is a detailed timeline of your sexual and/or emotional development, a map, so you can locate where you have been. Start at the beginning. How were sexuality and/or emotions introduced to you? How were sexuality, abuse, and violence talked about or not talked about in your home? What was the first time you were introduced to pornography and/or trauma? Abuse? Begin to enter into the stories. These should be bullet points to help locate you in your current story. This is for your growth and help with assignment #2.

Assignment #2

Choose one story from assignment #1 and dive deep into that story. Use all five senses, in the scene of abuse, or first exposure to pornography, or betrayal, abuse, what were the smells, the sights, what did the chair or bed feel like? What was the taste? During this assignment, you are landing the plane into your story, not merely flying over it. GET PARTICULAR. You must feel the weight of the story, if you are not feeling it or want to distance yourself from it, it is not worth your time doing it. Allow your body to enter back into what it has been trying to escape all these years. You will bring this to the first group meeting.

Assignment #3

Read and bring To Be A Man by Robert Masters the Anger chapter and the entire sexuality section- bring this book as we will briefly review each group. And make sure you have read How Not to Be an *SS or read or listened to The Sexually Healthy Man & The Psychology Porn.
